PALMS RESTAURANT

Cuisine: International

Our main restaurant, set right on the beach. Palms serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner with a mix of buffet and three-course à la carte options. The menu moves between Maldivian seafood, grilled meats, and international dishes. Most evenings, there is a live band and the kind of atmosphere that makes you want to stay for one more drink.

PALMS BAR

The island's main bar, tucked under palm-thatched roofs near the beach. Cocktails draw from both Eastern and Western traditions, and the list includes a good selection of wines, beers, and soft drinks.

THARI RESTAURANT

Cuisine: Pan-Asian

Open for lunch and dinner, Thari serves a three-course à la carte menu inspired by the diverse flavours of Pan Asia, celebrating bold, honest dishes with real character.

VILU BAR

Poolside drinks with a clear view across the Indian Ocean. A smaller, quieter bar when you want something cold without moving too far from the water.
